Taunton, Jan. 24.—The Legislature took its first dose of temperance medicine to-day, when, bers sat still for an hour and listened to speeches from Mrs. J. T. Crane, H. K. Carroll of the Independent, ex-Speaker E. A. Arm-strong, and several others, all of whom urged the Local Option bill as the one thing neces sary to save the State from rum. Fighter M. McDermitt of Essex, the same whose red elo-quence was a feature of the proceedings last winter, promptly gave notice that if the bill was not reported by to-morrow morning he would move to take it from the hands of the committee for immediate action. This doesn't mean that McDermitt loves the bill, but that he hates the brewers and likes to worry them. The fight over the whiskey question in the Assembly is expected to be on in earnest by next week, and it will be a merry one. The Republicans have abandoned the idea of making local option a caucus measure, but the majority of them will vote for it. It will also receive some Demo-cratic votes.

In joint meeting the following officers were lected: elected:

Riate Prison Inspectors—Andrew Cartwright, Essex;
Caleb Pancoast, uloupester: George Wright, Rahway
Commissioners of Pilotage—Honry W. Miller, Morris, Renry C. tullek, Ocean; Daniel Sharp, Cumberland;
Andrew J. Newbury, Hudson; John D. Toppin, Essex.

Henry C. Guilek. Ocean: Daniel Sharp, Cumberland; Andrew J. Newbury, Hudson; John D. Toppin, Essex.

The Republican row in Elizabeth over the fat place of District Court Judge, $2,500 n year for Rve years and one day's work a week, was also settled by the appointment of Joseph Cross, the result being to sow dissension in the breast of James N. English, a party voteran, who wanted the place for his brother, and in several other breasts of mon who wanted other lawyers appointed.

The funniest outcome of the quarrel over the spoils was the election of a new State Railroad Director in the place of Charles Butts of Camden. The name of the office sounds important, but the office isn't. It is a relic of the old time when the United Railroads of New Jersey was an Independent corporation and the State Director represented the State's shares of the Store the Ponnayiyania Railroad Jeased the an independent corporation and the State Director represented the State's shares of the stock.

Since the Ponnsylvania Railroad leased the United Railroads for 500 years, the latter corporation has had no business except to keep itself alive, which its Board of Directors does by meeting in Trentoon at stated periods and dining well. The State Director's salary is $3 a day for each tay of service—that is, of dinner—and there are four days of service in the year. Besides this he gets a railroad pass. Mr. Butts is a rentleman of Camden, who has eaten the regulation dinners with due dignity and solemnity for sevenieon years, and nobody thought of his over doing anything eise but eating regularly with the other ancients and honorables in the Board until the expiration of the 500 years and the arrival of the prince with news that the lease was ended wakened the siceping Board of beauties and the corporation into life again. Charles Burrows of Bergen county, however, was a candidate for Prison Inspector who came within one vote of getting the Republican caucus nomination instead of Wright, and his friends felt so bad about his defeat that the Republicans generously offered to square things by making him State Railroad Director, which the work is a nonlarly.

SINGULAR BEHAVIOR OF MR. COON. He Secretes Himself in a Well when the Nonwich, Conn., Jan. 24.-D. P. Coon, an old-time wealthy merchant of this city, recently became insane on account of business troubles, and his eccentric movements have to be watched. At 7 o'clock on Sunday evening. when the mercury was 4° below zero, Mr. Coon, in full street dress, went down the well in his back yard. It is thirty-five feet deep and there is five feet of water in it.

He was soon missed, and the neighborhood was aroused. People searched the streets and was aroused. People searched the streets and the dooryards, and called his name loudly. Some men went to the well, leaned over its curb, and shouted down the dark shaft, but no reply and no sound was heard. Finally Mrs. Coon, who had a strange conviction that her husband was in the well, went and asked:

"Mr. Coon, are you down the well?"

"Why, yes," replied the merchant coolly, in a tone of mild surprise, that indicated his opinion that it was the most natural thing in the world that a man should be down a well at 7 o'clock, evening, with the mercury below zero. Neighbors reeled the bucket down to Mr. Coon, who had been standing in water that reached to his shoulders for thirty minutes, and he caught hold of it and was drawn up. There was not a scratch on him, and it is a mystery how he got down the well so expertly and safely. Later in the evening Mr. Coon became lucid. He explained that he didn't reply to neighbors at the well because they were trying to catch him. He laughed heartily at his plight in the well, and said to his attendant:

"What under lieuwens fdo you suppose I wanted to go down that well for?"

CAUGHT BY THE LOW DOOR.

An Old New York Stage Driver Badly Hurt

Alanson Swan, who drives one of the stages that run from Bowling Green to South Ferry, was on the box at 7 o'clock yesterday morning getting ready to take his stage from the Broadway stables, in Seventh avenue, when the horses started suddenly.

when the horses started suddenly.

The door is too low for a stage to go through with the driver sitting erect, and when the driver has a chance be stoops far forward to go under it. Swan had no chance this time, and the cross beam caught him on the chest, and forced him back and crushed him against the back of his seat and the top of the stage. His ahoulder blade was broken, and his back was severely bruised. He is in the Roosevelt Hospital. He lives at 409 West Thirtieth street, with his wife and two children.

Swan is an old stage driver, having driven for Johnson & Sheppard on the old Ninth avenue line for thirty-one years. He is 68 years old.

Fishpoles Extraordinary. NORWICH, Jan. 24 .- E. L. Hutchinson of

Bouth Coventry got a business order the other day that joited his mental equipoise as well as excited his curiosity. It was from Cape Cod hickory. 48 to 65 feet long, and 8 inches in diameter at the butt. Mr. Hutchinson has the timber, and he is going to fill the order without asking any questions; but he would like to know what sort of fish his hickory withes are going to catch. A neighbor, who is equally in-terested, says the order recalls an old boyhood rhyme which, as nearly as he recollects, ran along in this way:

He baited his book
With sumthin -- ruther tails And sot on a rock And bobbed fur whales.

Is Any Man who Disagrees with Them In

At a meeting of the Board of Managers of the National Temperance Society, held at 58 Reade street yesterday, this resolution was

That we earnestly protest against the infamous proposition for Sunday liquor selling in this city, and we larerby call upon all Christian citizens to do all in their power to insure the overwhelming defeat of the measures already introduced in the Legislature to legalist this most demorshing and dangerous form of Sabbath breaking.

Too Much Saturday Haif Hellday.

Alderman Conkling tried to get the Aldermen yesterday to pass a resolution requesting the Legislature to limit the Saturday half holiday to June. July. August, and Soptember of each year. He submitted facts and figures to show that the wage earners as a class and a large number of business men are in favor of the change. The subject was referred to the Committee on Law.

A Big Thing for the Mayor to Think About. James Brady, who signs himself "An Old Taxpayer," writes to the Mayor advising the erection of a new City Hail, seven stories high extending from Broadway to Ceutre street and covering the site of the present City Hall, with the Goddess of Liberty placed 150 feet higher than the present figure of Justice. The Mayor is thinking about it.

David Gideon Wants Satisfaction for Money Leaned to Rewell Osborn.

Judge Ehrlich of the City Court has ordere that for the next six weeks at regular intervals advertisements shall be printed in the papers notifying Howell Osborn, the Gotham swell, that he is wanted in the City Courf to tell why he doesn't pay up a trifle of some 1.180 od dollars that David Gidson, a well-known man about town, claims that he lent him early last year. Lawyers Horwitz and Hershfield secured the order from Judge Ehrlich in a suit begun against Osborn last year in Gideon's behalf, and they are going to have the interesting news that he is a judgment debtor published regu-larly because, as they aver, they can't find him anywhere in the country, and suspect that he s somewhere in Paris.

When Osborn's father, Charles J. Osborn, the millionaire broker, died, his son inherited a fortune and went into Wall street and had a ratmillionaire broker, died, his son inherited a fortune and went into Wall street and had a rattling time there for a while, and came out of the mélée, it is said, with a big hole knocked in his handsome patrimony. He went to London for a quiet life afterward, and while there, so Gideon charges, borrowed of the latter $1.688.68, and gave in return a note promising to repay the loan on demand. Gideon asked for the payment of the loan when they both returned to this city in the summer, but he charges that all he ever got was $500. He saw Osborn at Long Branch and asked for the rest, and after that he never saw Osborn again, and could get no further satisfaction from him.

Last December Gideon put his claim in the hands of his lawyers, who got out an attachment against Osborn and gave it to the Sheriff to execute. Osborn had been living for a time during the summer both at his mother's house at 581 Fifth avenue and in private bachelor apartments at Sixth avenue and Fifty-second street, but the Sheriff couldn't find him there or anywhere else in town. Then Gideon applied to John W. Sterling, one of the executors of the will of Osborn's father, for relief, but Sterling, so he charges, told him that young Osborn had no further interest or share in Broker Charles Qaborn's large estate.

Gideon became convinced that Executor Sterling was trifling with him, and yesterday his lawyers secured still another order from Judge Ehrlich directing Sterling and his fellow executors to appear in court Co-morrow morning and give a true accounting of what share young Osborn still has in the estate of his father. The second order was granted on affidavit of Lawyer Severance, who swears that he examined the will of Broker Charles J. Osborn's benefit, and pay him the income and interest thereof regularly. Gideon personally made an affidavit to the court that he has been told by a friend of young Osborn has done with his income to cause him to repudiate his debts.

MANY INVOICES TO BE OVERHAULED.

MANY INVOICES TO BE OFERHAULED. Searching for More Undermeasurements of Imported Cloths,

There were several consultations and conferences yesterday between the persons most interested in the alleged undermeasurements of imported woollens, and before dusk things were in a fair way to end in a tangle. Lawyer Tracy, for Charles Barrez & Co., the accused firm, called on Collector Magone and tried to ascertain how many of the firm's involces the Collector had in his possession.

It was stated that offers of settlement bave been made by the firm, but this was denied, as well as the statement made for Charles Barrez & Co. that the Collector had offered to compro mise with the firm. Collector Magone denied having made any such offer, and Mr. Tracy, having made any such offer, and Mr. Tracy, speaking of the denial remarked: "The Collector can say anything he likes."

The Collector says a report of the affair has been sent to Secretary Fairchild, and the course of the Government will now be to decide whether the discrepancies in the invoices showing under measurement were the result of mistake or of design. If the latter, a jury will decide how much the Government's claim is worth.

of mistake or of design. If the latter, a jury will decide how much the Government's claim is worth.

Of the amount involved it was declared that the newspapers got it entirely too large yesterday, so far as the last importations of French woollens by the firm are concerned; that the alleged deficiency in those instances will foot up about $25,000, and that any sum above that will come from previous importations by the firm. It is proposed to examine all of the invoices of the firm and those of the senior member. Charles Barrez, before the present firm was formed.

The Collector now has locked up 161 cases of French woollens belonging to the firm, and, as they have been sold to customers, the firm desires a quick settlement of the dispute. There was talk yesterday of submitting the trouble to arbitration. Bluxome & Hamm are the Custom House brokers for the firm, and all the entries of the firm's goods as prenared by them were sworn to by a member of the firm.

It is said that the invoices of other firms show under measurement, and a vigorous investigation will be made. Mr. Barrez says be has no doubt that investigation will prove that he was innocent of any intent to wrong the Government.

The police Captains called at Headquarters resterday and got their new helmets. These are the exact shape of the policemen's hats They are made of dark blue cloth, have a patent ventilator on top, and a golden crossed at the front, and ornamented at the ends with golden acorns. Each helmet costs $8.25. The Captains' differ from the Sergeants' only by a gold wreath, enclosing the word "Captain."

The Captains will wear their present caps as fatigue caps. They don't like the helmets, and say that they expect to be fatigued a good deal.

A Fair Trial

Of Hood's Sarsaparilla for scrotula, salt rheum, or any affection caused by impure blood, is sufficient to con-vince any one of the superior and peculiar curative powers of this medicine. The following statement is ight to the point:
"My daughter Mary was afflicted with acrofulous sore neck from the time she was 22 months old till she becam 6 years of age. Lumps formed in her neck, causing great annoyance, and two of them, after growing to the size of a pigeon's egg, broke and discharged. One became a running sore for more than three years. We thought we would give Hood's Sarsaparilla a thorough trial. We began with it in January, and it a few months, after she had taken five bottles, all suppuration had ceased. We then waited three months, when, as a new ceases. We have written most a way a serious power has beginning to form, we again gave her Hood's Sarasparilla. After she had taken less than two bottles the lump and all indications of scrofuls had entirely disappeared, and now she seems to be a healthy child." S. S. CARLILE, Nauright, S. J.

SKIN SCALP BLOOD

Having been a sufferer for two years and a half from a disease caused by a bruise on the leg and having been cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES when all other de and remedies failed. I deem it my duty to methods and remedies failed. I deem it my duty to recommend them. I visited Hot Springs to so avail, and tried several doctors without success, and at last our principal druggies. Mr. John P. Finlay (to whom I shall over feel grateful), spoke to me about the CUTL and CURA REMEDIES, and I consented to give them a trial with the result that I am perfectly cured. There is now no sore about me. I think I can show the largest surno sore about me. I think I can sow the largest surface where my sufferings sprains from of any one in the State. The CUTICURA REMEDIRS are the best blood and skin cures manufactured. I refer to Draggist John P. Finlay and Dr. D. C. Mentgemery, both of this place, and to Dr. Smith of Lake Lee, Miss.

ALEXANDER BRACH, Greenville, Miss.

Mr. Beach used the CUTICURA REMEDIES, at our request, with results as above stated.

SAVED MY MOTHER'S LIFE.

Ever since 1 can remember, my mother has suffered from a milk leg. Nothing would do her any good. She had the best of medical talent, but they all did her no had the best of medical talent, but they all did ber no good. She suffered with her leg for thirty years and never knew a well day. She would have te sit up half the night, holding up her leg and moaning. She had no peace. She used all the best known remedies in the country without effect. I asked her to try your CUT-CURA REMEDIES. Got her a bottle of CUTTOTRA RESOLVENT, and she toek it and has taken in all about six or seven bottles, and now she is a well woman today. Her leg is entirely healed, and her health was never better. She can go out every day, something she has not done in ten years, so you see icannot help stabling to you about your wonderful CUTICURA REMEDIES. You have saved my mother's life. I cannot find words to express my grattude. I have advertised your CUTICURA MEMEDIES for and near.
